

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

20 October 1982

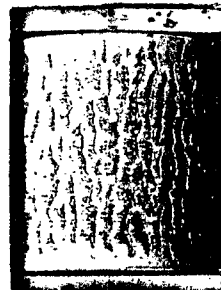

Dear Bill:

I want to thank you for a very fine job during my visit [redacted]. I appreciated your preparatory work and the consultations with you while I was there. I think we have taken a significant step in restoring the good relations we have had in the past [redacted]. The good relationship you have with [redacted] officials has, I'm sure, been very helpful in this process and will stand us in good stead in the months ahead.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
